Consumer Financial Protection Bureau Pending Rulemakings, Final Rulemakings and Other Initiatives under Dodd-Frank Act (DFA) as of August 15, 2012

Description	Date of Proposal/Final or Interim Rule	Summary of Contents	Key Dates
Proposed Rule with Request for Public Comment	August 9, 2012 (Docket No. CFPB-2012-0033) (Docket No. CFPB-2012-0034)	The proposed amendments implement the Dodd-Frank Act provisions regarding mortgage loan servicing. Specifically, this proposal implements Dodd Frank Act sections addressing initial rate adjustment notices for adjustable-rate mortgages (ARMs), periodic statements for residential mortgage loans, and prompt crediting of mortgage payments and response to requests for payoff amounts. The proposed revisions also amend current rules governing the scope, timing, content, and format of current disclosures to consumers occasioned by the interest rate adjustments of their variable-rate transactions The proposal also requests comment regarding proposed additions to Regulation X to address seven servicer obligations: (1) to correct errors asserted by mortgage loan borrowers; (2) to provide information requested by mortgage loan borrowers; (3) to ensure that a reasonable basis exists to obtain force-placed insurance; (4) to establish reasonable information management policies and procedures; (5) to provide information about mortgage loss mitigation options to delinquent borrowers; (6) to provide delinquent borrowers access to servicer personnel with continuity of contact about the borrower's mortgage loan account; and (7) to evaluate borrowers' applications for available loss mitigation options.	Written comments due on or before October 9, 2012
Final Rule, Official Interpretation	August 7, 2012 (Docket No. CFPB-2011-0009)	The final rule modifies a final rule published in February 2012 implementing section 1073 of the Dodd-Frank Act regarding remittance transfers. The final rule adopts a safe harbor with respect to the phrase "normal course of business" in the definition of "remittance transfer provider," which determines whether a person is covered by the rule. The final rule also revises several aspects of the February 2012 final rule regarding remittance transfers that are scheduled before the date of transfer, including preauthorized remittance transfers.	Effective Date: February 7, 2013
Notice and Request for Comment	August 7, 2012 (77 FR 47,045)	The Bureau is soliciting comments concerning the information collection requirements relating to "Generic Clearance for the Collection of Qualitative Feedback	Written comments due on or

		on the Service Delivery of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau." The proposed information collection activity would garner qualitative feedback from financial institutions, consumers, and stakeholders on a wide range of services the Bureau provides in an efficient, timely manner.	before October 9, 2012
Interim Rule with Request for Public Comment	August 6, 2012 (77 FR 46,606)	This interim final rule provides for the enforcement of section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, which prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability in programs or activities conducted by the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection. It sets forth standards for what constitutes discrimination on the basis of mental or physical disability, provides a definition for "individual with a disability" and "qualified individual with a disability," and establishes a complaint mechanism for resolving allegations of discrimination. The rule further clarifies that the complaint mechanism is also available for processing complaints that the agency has failed to meet accessibility standards for electronic and information technology, in violation of section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.	Interim Rule effective August 6, 2012; Written comments due on or before October 5, 2012
Notice of Availability; Request for Comment	August 2, 2012 (77 FR 46,069)	The availability of The Proposed Guidelines for Ensuring and Maximizing the Quality, Objectivity, Utility, and Integrity of Information Disseminated by the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection announced. The guidelines are meant to ensure and maximize the quality, objectivity, utility, and integrity of information disseminated by the Bureau. These guidelines also detail the administrative mechanisms developed by the Bureau to allow affected persons to seek and obtain appropriate correction of information maintained and disseminated by the Bureau that does not comply with the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) or the Bureau guidelines.	Written comments due on or before September 4, 2012
Notice and Request for Information	August, 2, 2012 (77 FR 46,069)	The CFPB's Office of Financial Education (OFE) seeks public comment on effective financial education approaches that create opportunities for consumers to improve their financial decision making capabilities. OFE is interested in promoting innovation to assist consumers in solving common, discrete financial decision-making problems where behavioral approaches could be valuable. Some of these common financial decisions could be facilitated by a number of approaches that specifically address the behavioral impediments to progress.	Written comments due on or before October 31, 2012
Final Rule	July 20, 2012 (77 FR 42,873)	The Bureau is finalizing a rule subjecting certain consumer reporting agencies to its supervision by defining "larger participants" of a market for consumer reporting.	Effective Date: September 30, 2012

CFPB Bulletin 2012-06 Marketing of Credit Card Add-on Products	July 18, 2012 http://files.consumerfinance.gov/f/201207_cfpb_bulletin_marketing_of_credit_card_addon_products.pdf	In response to the practice of credit card issuers offering “add-on” products, such as debt protection, identity theft protection and credit score tracking, this bulletin outlines the Bureau’s expectation that credit card issuers and their service providers comply with all federal consumer financial protection law.	July 18, 2012
Final Rule; Official Interpretation; Correction	July 10, 2012 (77 FR 40,459)	The Bureau is correcting a final rule with an official interpretation (Final Rule) that appeared in the February 7, 2012 Federal Register. The Final Rule provides new protections, including disclosures and error resolution and cancellation rights, to consumers who send remittance transfers to other consumers or businesses in a foreign country. The Final Rule inadvertently did not reflect certain technical and conforming changes made by the interim final rule published on December 27, 2011. The Final Rule also contained a technical error in the formatting of certain model forms. This document corrects the error and the formatting of the model forms.	Effective Date: The corrections are effective February 7, 2013
Proposed Rule and Request for Public Comment	July 9, 2012 (Docket No. CFPB-2012-0028)	Sections 1032(f), 1098, and 1100A of the Dodd-Frank Act direct the Bureau to issue proposed rules and forms that combine certain disclosures that consumers receive in connection with applying for and closing on a mortgage loan under the Truth in Lending Act and the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act. Consistent with this requirement, the Bureau is proposing to amend Regulation X (Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act) and Regulation Z (Truth in Lending) to establish new disclosure requirements and forms in Regulation Z for most closed-end consumer credit transactions secured by real property. In addition to combining the existing disclosure requirements and implementing new requirements in the Dodd-Frank Act, the proposed rule provides extensive guidance regarding compliance with those requirements.	Written comments must be received on or before 60 days from the date of publication in the Federal Register
Proposed Rule and Request for Public Comment	July 9, 2012 (Docket No. CFPB-2012-0029)	The Dodd-Frank Act expanded HOEPA to apply to additional types of mortgage transactions, including to purchase money mortgage loans and home-equity lines of credit. Congress also amended HOEPA’s existing high-cost triggers, added a prepayment penalty trigger, and expanded the protections associated with high-cost mortgages. The Bureau is now proposing to amend Regulation Z to implement the Dodd-Frank Act amendments to HOEPA. The proposal also would implement other homeownership counseling-related requirements that Congress adopted in the Dodd-Frank Act, that are not	Written comments must be received on or before 60 days from the date of publication in the Federal Register

		amendments to HOEPA.
Final Rule	July 5, 2012 (77 FR 39,617)	The Bureau is amending its rules relating to the confidential treatment of information by adding a new section providing that the submission by any person of any information to the Bureau in the course of the Bureau's supervisory or regulatory processes will not waive or otherwise affect any privilege such person may claim with respect to such information under Federal or State law as to any other person or entity. In addition, the Bureau has amended its regulations to provide that the Bureau's provision of privileged information to another Federal or State agency does not waive any applicable privilege, whether the privilege belongs to the Bureau or any other person.	Effective Date: August 6, 2012
Notice and Request for Information	July 2, 2012 (77 FR 39,222)	To assist its ongoing study of reverse mortgage transactions, the Bureau is seeking detailed information from the public on the factors that influence reverse mortgage consumers' decision-making, consumers' use of reverse mortgage loan proceeds, longer-term consumer outcomes of a decision to obtain a reverse mortgage, and differences in market dynamics and business practices among the broker, correspondent, and retail channels for reverse mortgages.	Written comments must be received on or before August 31, 2012
Final Rule	June 29, 2012 (77 FR 39,112)	The Bureau issues a final rule governing notices by state regulatory agencies of planned enforcement proceedings. This rule replaces an interim rule that took effect in July 2011, with some changes based on public comment.	Effective Date: June 29, 2012
Final Rule	June 29, 2012 77 FR 39,058)	The Bureau issues a final rule establishing procedures for the conduct of adjudication proceedings in connection with the enforcement of laws over which the Bureau has enforcement authority. The final rule adopts the interim rule issued in July 2011, with changes based on comments received.	Effective Date: June 29, 2012
Final Rule	June 29, 2012 77 FR 39,101)	The Bureau adopts a final rule establishing policies and procedures that apply to (1) the Bureau's authority to conduct investigations to ascertain whether any person has engaged in a violation of a Federal consumer financial law, and (2) the rights of persons from whom the Bureau seeks to compel information in these investigations. The final rule adopts the interim rule issued in July, 2011 with changes based on comments received.	Effective Date: June 29, 2012
Interim Final Rule With Request for Public Comment	June 29, 2012 77 FR 39,117	The Bureau adopts an interim final rule establishing procedures for the submission and consideration of applications for the award of attorneys fees and other litigation expenses in connection with adversary adjudications, as required under the Equal Access to Justice Act.	Effective Date: June 29, 2012 Written comments

			must be received on or before August 28, 2012
Notice of Proposed Policy Statement	June 22, 2012 (77 FR 37,616)	The CFPB is requesting comment on a proposed policy statement regarding the Bureau's disclosure of data from consumer complaints about financial products and services other than credit cards. Concurrent with the present notice, the Bureau is separately finalizing a Policy Statement (the "Policy Statement") describing its plans to disclose consumer credit card complaint data. The present notice (the "Concurrent Notice") describes the Bureau's plan to duplicate the data disclosure practices described in the Policy Statement for consumer complaints about other consumer financial services products and services within the Bureau's jurisdiction.	Written comments must be received on or before July 19, 2012
Notice of Final Policy Statement	June 22, 2012 (77 FR 37,558)	The CFPB is issuing a final policy statement (the "Policy Statement") to provide guidance on how the Bureau plans to exercise its discretion to publicly disclose certain credit card complaint data that do not include personally identifiable information. The Policy Statement also identifies additional ways that the Bureau may disclose credit card complaint data but as to which it will conduct further study before finalizing its position.	Effective Date: June 19, 2012
Request for Information	June 19, 2012 (77 FR 36,491)	Section 1013(g)(1) of the Dodd-Frank Act requires the Bureau to facilitate the financial literacy of individuals aged 62 or older ("seniors"), on protection from unfair, deceptive, and abusive practices and on current and future financial choices, including through dissemination of materials on such topics. In furtherance of this mandate, the CFPB's Office for the Financial Protection of Older Americans seeks information on consumer financial products and services, financial literacy efforts, and fraudulent or deceptive practices impacting the lives of older Americans and their families.	Written comments must be received on or before August 20, 2012
Notice and Request for Comment	June 19, 2012 (77 FR 36,489)	The CFPB invites the general public and other Federal agencies to comment on proposed and/or continuing information collections, as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. The Bureau is soliciting comments regarding a proposed generic information collection titled "Generic Clearance for Development and/or Testing of Model Forms, Disclosures, Tools, and Other Similar Related Materials." Final Rule; Official Commentary	February 15, 2012 (77 FR 8,721)	The Bureau published a final rule amending this official commentary that interprets the requirements of Regulation C (HMDA) to reflect a change in the asset-size exemption threshold for depository institutions. The exemption threshold has been adjusted to increase from $40 million to $41 million, based on the increase in the CPI-W.	Effective Date: February 15, 2012

Semiannual Regulatory Agenda and Fiscal Year 2011 Regulatory Plan	February 13, 2012 (77 FR 8,034)	The Bureau is publishing this agenda as part of the Fall 2011 Unified Agenda of Federal Regulatory and Deregulatory Actions. The Bureau reasonably anticipates having the regulatory matters identified below under consideration during the period from October 1, 2011, to October 1, 2012. The next agenda will be published in spring 2012 and will update this agenda through October 1, 2012. The regulatory matters include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Dodd-Frank Act requirement under the Equal Credit Opportunity Act (ECOA) to require financial institutions to report information concerning credit applications made by women- or minority-owned businesses and small businesses. 2. The Bureau will publish a proposed rule and model mortgage disclosure forms that will integrate the disclosure requirements of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA) and the Truth in Lending Act (TILA), as required by the Dodd-Frank Act. 3. The issuance of a proposed rule under the EFTA that requires that remittance transfer providers give senders of remittance transfers certain disclosures. The Bureau is working to issue a final rule. (See above for issuance of final rule.) 4. A rule to implement certain amendments to the Truth in Lending Act (TILA) made by the Dodd-Frank Act that lengthen the time for which a mandatory escrow account established for a higher-priced mortgage loan must be maintained. In addition, the Board's proposal would implement the Dodd-Frank Act's disclosure requirements regarding escrow accounts. The Bureau is working to issue a final rule. 5. The issuance of a final rule to implement statutory changes made by the Dodd-Frank Act that expand the scope of the ability-to-repay requirement to cover any consumer credit transaction secured by a dwelling (excluding an open-end credit plan timeshare plan, reverse mortgage, or temporary loan). In addition, the proposal would establish standards for complying with the ability-to-repay requirement, including by making a "qualified mortgage." The proposal also implements the Dodd-Frank Act's limits on prepayment penalties. The Bureau is working to issue a final rule. 	February 13, 2012 (Bureau Information is current as of September 9, 2011)

Agency Information Collection Activities; Renewal of Currently Approved Collections; Comment Request	January 19, 2012 (77 FR 2,685)	The Dodd-Frank Act transferred rulemaking authority for a number of consumer financial protection laws from seven Federal agencies to the Bureau as of July 21, 2011. In December 2011, the Bureau republished the regulations implementing those laws with technical and conforming changes to reflect the transfer of authority and certain other changes made by the Dodd-Frank Act. Prior to the republication, the Bureau obtained emergency approvals from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for the information collections for which the Bureau had administrative enforcement authority under these regulations. The Bureau primarily relied on the estimates previously developed by the transferor agencies concerning the number of entities subject to the regulations and the hours of paperwork burden under the statutes.
