		1. The Dodd-Frank Act requirement under the Equal Credit Opportunity Act (ECOA) to require financial institutions to report information concerning credit applications made by women- or minority-owned businesses and small businesses. 2. The Bureau will publish a proposed rule and model mortgage disclosure forms that will integrate the disclosure requirements of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA) and the Truth in Lending Act (TILA), as required by the Dodd-Frank Act. 3. The issuance of a proposed rule under the EFTA that requires that remittance transfer providers give senders of remittance transfers certain disclosures. The Bureau is working to issue a final rule. (See above for issuance of final rule.) 4. A rule to implement certain amendments to the Truth in Lending Act (TILA) made by the Dodd-Frank Act that lengthen the time for which a mandatory escrow account established for a higher-priced mortgage loan must be maintained. In addition, the Board's proposal would implement the Dodd-Frank Act's disclosure requirements regarding escrow accounts. The Bureau is working to issue a final rule. 5. The issuance of a final rule to implement statutory changes made by the Dodd-Frank Act that expand the scope of the ability-to-repay requirement to cover any consumer credit transaction secured by a dwelling (excluding an open-end credit plan timeshare plan, reverse mortgage, or temporary loan). In addition, the proposal would establish standards for complying with the ability-to-repay requirement, including by making a "qualified mortgage." The proposal also implements the Dodd-Frank Act's limits on prepayment penalties. The Bureau is working to issue a final rule.
