Raising Money Just Became Easier

March 30, 2012

On March 27, 2012, the U.S. House passed the Senate-amended version of the Jumpstart Our Business Startup (“JOBS”) Act, which provides smaller, private companies more robust access to capital markets and eases certain reporting obligations of public companies. The bill has been sent to the President for signature, who previously indicated that he will sign it into law.

Raising money will be easier than ever before. To strategize on how the new JOBS Act can benefit you or your company, contact one of the members of our Corporate & Securities team.
