Litigation

We are passionate about pursuing professional liability cases because we know they can materially impact professional reputations, which our clients have spent a lifetime developing and they can have the potential for severely impacting earnings expectations over many years.

We structure our litigation strategy with an eye towards minimizing reputation impact while providing an aggressive, focused and effective defense of the case.

Dykema lawyers have successfully defended serious and complex professional liability lawsuits for a variety of professionals including:

- Physicians and medical practice groups
- Psychiatrists
- Psychologists
- Nurses
- Pharmacists
- Law firms
- Individual attorneys
- Accountants
- Engineers
- Architects
- Insurance professionals
- Corporate officers and directors

When your reputation is on the line, you can depend on Dykema attorneys for an effective defense.
