Robin Jung has extensive experience in automotive products liability defense, breach of warranty defense, financial services litigation, and general business litigation. Mr. Jung previously practiced insurance coverage defense (property and commercial liability) and has represented clients in state, federal and appellate courts. Mr. Jung has represented corporate manufacturers of automobiles, pharmaceuticals, industrial machinery, and consumer hand tools, as well as major banks and mortgage servicers. He was also recently seconded as in-house litigation counsel for a multi-national automobile manufacturer, where he managed products liability litigation for the United States, Canada, and Puerto Rico as well as regulatory compliance with the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA).

During law school, Mr. Jung was a certified law clerk at the Los Angeles City Attorney's Office - Domestic Violence Prosecution Unit and also clerked at the Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles' Asian Pacific Islander Unit.

Mr. Jung currently serves on the Advisory Board of the Asian Pacific American Bar Association (APABA-LA), where he is also a Past-President. In addition, he is a founding member and sits on the executive board of the California Asian Pacific American Bar Association (Cal-APABA) and is co-chair of its judicial appointments committee. He is also a member of the Korean American Bar Association, where he regularly volunteers at monthly pro-bono clinics serving the mono-lingual Korean community.
