Nazneen S. Hasan is an associate in the Bloomfield Hills, Michigan office of Dykema. Ms. Hasan focuses her practice on taxation and advising clients on trust and estate issues such as estate planning and trust and estate administration. Ms. Hasan is an advocate in matters involving Fiduciary Probate Litigation such as Conservatorships, Guardianships, Contested Fiduciary matters, and dispute resolution.

Prior to joining Dykema, Ms. Hasan was a Vice President and Senior Fiduciary Advisor at a private wealth management company, serving the needs of ultra high net worth individuals and families. Ms. Hasan began her career as an Estate and Business planning attorney in private practice. Shortly after joining the firm, Ms. Hasan managed the Estate and Trust Administration Department in addition to her existing estate and business planning practice.

Ms. Hasan is a recipient of the Certificate for Probate and Estate Planning co-sponsored by the Institute of Continuing Legal Education and the Probate Estate Planning Section of the State Bar of Michigan. Additionally, Ms. Hasan is a member of the Probate Council for the Probate and Estate Planning Section of the State Bar of Michigan. She is also a member of the Business law Section, and Taxation Section of the State Bar of Michigan.

Ms. Hasan was selected as a speaker on behalf of the State Bar of Michigan in its campaign to empower and educate senior citizens in making sound estate planning decisions.

Ms. Hasan has presented for the Institute of Continuing Legal Education (ICLE) on several occasions, and is an Advisory Board Member to the Institute of Continuing Legal Education.
