Erin Cusenbary is a corporate finance attorney located in Dykema's San Antonio office. Erin's practice focuses on the representation of financial institutions, corporate lenders and borrowers in a wide range of financing arrangements.

Experience

Erin graduated from The University of Texas School of Law in May 2018.

While in law school, Erin served as the Executive Vice President of the Women's Law Caucus, as well as the Musical Director and Business Director of Assault and Flattery. She spent the Fall 2017 semester on exchange at the University of Oslo Faculty of Law in Oslo, Norway.

Representative Matters

- Prior to joining Dykema, Erin worked for a large Houston-based law firm, where her work focused primarily on financing arrangements for clients in the oil and natural gas industries.
