Robert Boonin Comments on Blocking of Overtime Rules in Law360 Article

November 23, 2016

Robert Boonin, Detroit and Ann Arbor-based member in Dykema's Labor & Employment Practice Group, was quoted extensively in the Law360 story, "Blocked Overtime Rule Leaves Employers With Pay Dilemma."

The article reports on the ramifications of the temporary injunction suddenly handed down in Texas Eastern District Court, halting implementation of the reclassification of certain exempt employees as nonexempt. Boonin states that the suspension would be a relief to smaller employers with limited resources for paying overtime. He also speculates about the eventual fate of the ruling in the courts and under the new administration.
