Paul Laurenza on the Future of Vehicle-to-Vehicle Communication in Law360

November 2, 2017

Paul M. Laurenza, leader of the firm's Automotive Government Policy & Practice group, discusses the government's likely postponement of mandatorily equipping vehicles with V2V technology and the debate about sharing V2V's assigned bandwidth in the Law360 article, "Murky Connected-Car Regime Won't Halt Auto Tech Push."
