

News & Insights

Bloomberg Law* Highlights Dykema-led Pro Bono Program Helping Detroit Tenants Facing Eviction

April 19, 2018

A pro bono training program for attorneys willing to represent low-income Detroit renters fighting dislodgement that is being spearheaded by Dykema was featured in the Bloomberg Law United States Law Week article, “Dykema, Ford Help Detroit Tenants Facing Eviction.”

Heidi Naasko, Ann Arbor-based litigator and Dykema’s National Pro Bono and Diversity Counsel, was quoted extensively about the program in the article. In collaboration with Ford Motor Company and two local legal aid organizations, Dykema’s pro bono program aspires to assist Detroiters who are being ousted by their landlords who can’t afford lawyers.

Subscribers to Bloomberg Law’s United States Law Week may find the full article in the April 19, 2018, edition (vol. 86, no. 39).

Attorneys

Heidi A. Naasko

Practice Areas

Litigation