

News & Insights

Jonathan Michael to Serve as Featured Speaker at Estate Planning Short Course

May 9, 2018

Jonathan W. Michael, Chicago-based member in Dykema's Tax & Estate Planning Practice, will serve as a featured speaker at the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education's 61st Annual Estate Planning Short Course. This two-day event, which is considered the preeminent legal education event for estate planning attorneys and trust officers in the State of Illinois, will take place in Champaign May 14-15 and in Chicago May 23-24.

Mr. Michael will serve as panel moderator for the featured presentation "Standards? We Don't Need No Stinkin' Standards!" The presentation, which takes place at 1:30 p.m. on Day 1, will provide insight about the do's and don'ts of trust distribution standards, as well as how those distribution standards are applied and interpreted on an everyday basis.

For more information, or to register for the event, click here.

Practice Areas

Estate Planning & Administration

Taxation