

News & Insights

Hardberger and Speedlin Praise Judicial Colleague in San Antonio Express-News

October 15, 2018

San Antonio-based attorneys Phillip D. Hardberger and Phylis J. Speedlin, both Senior Counsel in Dykema's Litigation Department and former Texas Fourth Court of Appeals justices, were quoted in the San Antonio Express-News story, "Retired Judge to Lead Sex Abuse Panel; Stone Called Well-Suited For Review Involving Priests, Children."

The article discusses the San Antonio Archdiocese's creation of an independent commission tasked with searching through decades of church records for evidence of clerical abuse of minors. The commission is to be headed by Catherine Stone, retired chief justice of the Fourth Court of Appeals. Hardberger, a former city mayor, and Speedlin commend Stone's straightforward manner and scrupulous ethics.

Subscribers to the San Antonio Express-News may read the full article here.

Attorneys

Phillip D. Hardberger

Phylis J. Speedlin

Practice Areas

Alternative Dispute Resolution

Litigation