Jim Aldrich Discusses Fate of EB-5 with National Real Estate Investor

December 6, 2018

James G. Aldrich, Jr., Bloomfield Hills-based member in Dykema's Labor & Employment Practice Group and Leader of the Firm's Immigration Team, was quoted at length in the National Real Estate Investor Finance & Investment Column, "Roadblocks Could Derail EB-5 Investment Capital."

Regarding the EB-5 foreign investment opportunities, which help finance domestic real estate projects, Aldrich comments on the historically precarious status of the program, the disparity of approval times for various countries, and the possible ramifications of Congress's recent changes in configuration.
