Bloomberg Law Quotes Lintemuth and Hermon on Workplace COVID-19 Vaccine Programs

December 17, 2020

Elisa Lintemuth and Jim Hermon, Michigan-based members in Dykema's Labor and Employment Practice Group, were quoted in the Bloomberg Law story, "Storage, Dosage Demands Push Employers' Covid-19 Shots Off Site."

The article discusses the litany of challenges presented by the COVID-19 vaccines, such as ultra-cold storage and double-dose requirements. The article goes on to discuss how obstacles may prevent employers from offering on-site vaccine clinics rather than paying a premium to administer on-site causing their staff to lean on pharmacies and other vendors to administer the shots off site.
