Dykema Financial Services Lawyers to Attend MBA 2014 Legal Issues and Regulatory Compliance Conference

Seven-Person Delegation to Key Industry Event Includes Litigation and Compliance Team Members

March 27, 2014

Seven Dykema lawyers—all members of the Firm's Financial Industry Group and including members of the Firm's Financial Services Litigation and Financial Services Regulatory & Compliance practices—are scheduled to attend the Mortgage Bankers Association's 2014 Legal Issues and Regulatory Compliance Conference in San Diego, California.

This conference runs from May 4-7, 2014, and is one of the largest gatherings of senior executives in the mortgage industry—attracting hundreds of delegates from the mortgage lending, brokering, and servicing industries.

The Dykema contingent will include:

Haydn Richards, Jr. – Washington, D.C.-based member; Director of the Firm's Financial Industry Group and member, Financial Services Regulatory and Compliance practice

Tom Schehr – Detroit-based member; leader of the Firm's Financial Services Litigation practice

Joe Hickey – Bloomfield Hills-based member; leader of Dykema's Consumer Financial Services practice

Heather Hutchings – Washington, D.C.-based member, Financial Services Regulatory and Compliance practice

Luke Sosnicki – Los Angeles-based attorney, Financial Services Litigation practice

Arthur Axelson – Washington, D.C.-based attorney; senior counsel, Financial Services Regulatory and Compliance practice

Bob Groholski – Chicago-based member, Financial Services Litigation practice

The MBA 2014 Legal Issues and Regulatory Compliance Conference is accredited, and is intended to satisfy up to 15 CLE credits upon approval by applicable state bar licensing entities.
