Lou Chronowski Reappointed to the International Franchise Association's Legal Symposium Planning Task Force

August 21, 2014

Louis S. Chronowski, a Chicago-based attorney and member of Dykema's Commercial Litigation Practice Group, was recently reappointed to the International Franchise Association's (IFA) Legal Symposium Planning Task Force.

The task force is made up of franchise legal experts and is responsible for organizing and planning the IFA's Annual Legal Symposium and identifying moderators and speakers for education sessions relevant to franchising from a business and legal perspective.

The 48th Annual Legal Symposium is scheduled to take place May 3-5, 2015, in Chicago.
