

News & Insights

Todd Gale Presents at The Network of Trial Law Firms' Litigation Management CLE SuperCourse

October 22, 2014

Todd Gale, Chicago-based senior counsel in Dykema's Financial Services Litigation practice, recently delivered a presentation—"Ethics: The CFPB and the Attorney-Client Privilege: Practical Implications and Ethical Concerns"—at The Network of Trial Law Firms' Litigation Management CLE SuperCourse.

In the presentation, Gale discusses Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) requests for attorney-client privilege materials and highlights how attorneys might protect important privileges and uphold ethical obligations to their clients, given statutory scheme.

To view the entire presentation, click here for video, and here for the accompanying PowerPoint.

Attorneys

Todd Gale

Practice Areas

Litigation