Dykema Lawyers Discuss Key Issues in the Auto Industry

January 16, 2012

Aleks Miziolek, Director of Dykema's Automotive Industry Group, recently moderated a roundtable discussion with three of her Dykema colleagues—Steve Bolerjack, Sherrie Farrell and John Guenther. The four shared their insights and perspectives on some of the major issues facing the global auto industry. Among the themes explored: current antitrust actions, recent new changes to the U.S. patent system and the risks related to the higher technological content of automobiles.

The discussion is featured on the Autobeat Insider website, along with many more examples of Dykema-created content focusing on issues that matter most to the auto industry.
