Cameron Piggott Named to Midwest Real Estate News 2011 Hall of Fame

January 13, 2012

Dykema is pleased to announce that Cameron Piggott has been named to Midwest Real Estate News' 2011 Hall of Fame. Midwest Real Estate News is the most authoritative publication in its sector, serving as the 'go to resource' for all matters of commercial real estate in 11 of the Heartland states.

Piggott was selected from among more than 300 candidates nominees—only 64 meriting Hall of Fame status. In Midwest Real Estate News' coverage of the 2011 Hall of Fame class, Piggott is highlighted as follows, "To call Cameron Piggott a preeminent real estate attorney would be understating the facts. His talents have been instrumental in helping developers complete a number of complex public/private projects. He's also served lead roles on projects that help fuel a region's economy."
