Established in 1984, Dykema's Grand Rapids office is the central location for the Firm's national white collar practice that focuses on white collar criminal defense, corporate internal investigations and compliance counseling. The office also has a strong real estate, corporate, financial institution, bankruptcy, environmental and commercial litigation practice. Lawyers in this office regularly counsel clients in general litigation and product liability defense, business and corporate transactions, capital and finance (including workouts and restructurings), commercial, environmental, employment and international matters.

Our Grand Rapids office represents clients in courts throughout Western and Northern Michigan, and in the Upper Peninsula. The Grand Rapids office, coupled with Dykema's national presence, brings world-class services to our clients.
