

Resources

“Foreclosure Delay Via Bankruptcy Fraud: How Creditors Can Fight Back”

October 4, 2018

Westlaw Journal: Bankruptcy

Gregory K. Jones, Los Angeles-based senior counsel in Dykema’s Bankruptcy and Restructuring practice group, is the author of “Foreclosure Delay Via Bankruptcy Fraud: How Creditors Can Fight Back,” which appeared in the Practitioner Insights column of Westlaw Journal: Bankruptcy.

Jones discusses the problem of bogus bankruptcy filings submitted by delinquent borrowers to postpone foreclosures on their properties, and delineates tactics financial institutions can employ to fight such schemes.

Practice Areas

Bankruptcy, Insolvency & Creditors’ Rights

Business Services